

$R^2 =$ coefficient of determination

① ___% of the variation in [y in context] can be explained by/accounted for by the LSRL of [y in context] on [x in context]

→ include logs if necessary

② ___% of the ... by the regression of [y] on [x].

③ ___% of the ... by the linear relationship with [x].